Angus Juniors Showcase Creativity in Art Competition at Showdown in Lloydminster, SK

July 25, 2017: For Immediate Release

Rocky View County, AB—Canadian Junior Angus is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2017 Art Competition. Awards were presented at the banquet on Saturday, July 22nd.

The junior division (ages 9–12) champion was Rory Greenbank from Wawota, SK. Reserve champion was Wynton Brandl from Jarvie, AB.

The intermediate division (ages 13–16) was won by Carson Liebreich from Radville, SK and reserve was won by Connor Douglas from County of Barrhead, AB.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Holly Somerville of Mountain, ON was selected champion and Meghan McGillivray of Kamloops, BC was reserve champion.

Juniors can compete in 16 different competitions at Showdown. Juniors that compete in the Art competition prepare a piece of art at home that is related to the Angus industry and bring it to Showdown for judging. The pieces of art vary from drawn pictures to welding projects and are judged based on creativity, originality and quality.

Canadian Junior Angus is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by Canadian Junior Angus. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year a record 158 participants and almost 200 head of cattle took part in Showdown in Lloydminster, SK.
