Eloquent Juniors Receive Awards at Canadian Junior Angus Showdown

August 4, 2016: For Immediate Release

REGINA, SK—The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the Public Speaking Competition at Showdown 2016 in Truro, NS. The winners received their awards at the banquet on July 30th.

In the Junior division (ages 9–12) champion was awarded to Abby Falconer from Pictou, Nova Scotia and reserve went to Nolan Chalmers of Shanty Bay, ON.

Albertans took the intermediate division (ages 13–16) with champion presented to Riley Leeson from Vauxhall and reserve champion to Robert Geis from Barrhead.

Champion in the senior division (ages 17–21) was Becky Domolewski of Taber, AB. The reserve in this competition was won by Lana Kraus from Gowanstown, ON.

Public Speaking requires the Juniors to prepare and deliver a quality speech relating to Angus cattle, the beef industry, Showdown or Junior activities. Participants are judged on their confidence while speaking as well as the speech content and organization.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 72 participants that took part in Showdown in Truro, NS.
