Canadian Angus Association Presents Champion Buckle to Top Auctioneer

June 4, 2014: for immediate release

Rocky View County, AB — The Canadian Angus Association is pleased to honour Shawn Gist who sells for Vold Jones Vold (VJV) in Dawson Creek, B.C. as the winner of the Livestock Markets Association of Canada (LMAC) Auctioneer Competition. Canadian Angus Association Director of Field Services Brian Good presented the champion buckle during the LMAC convention in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan. Shawn dedicated this award to late CAA Alberta fieldman Ken Cox.

There were 27 participants in this year's competition. The annual competition moves around to different parts of Canada each year. Kirk Goldsmith who sells out of Veteran, Alberta, received reserve honours.

Congratulations to Shawn Gist on winning this highly respected competition. His hard work and dedication to the agriculture industry has paid off. The Canadian Angus Association proudly awards Gist for his effort in this year's auctioneer competition.

The Canadian Angus Association is Canada's largest purebred beef breed organization. The Association represents 3,000 members across Canada for the purposes of registering and recording the pedigrees of purebred Angus cattle in the closed herd book and promoting the breed across Canada. The member-approved mandate is to maintain breed registry, breed purity and provide services that enhance the growth and position of the Angus breed.
