Juniors Draw on Teamwork Skills in Team Grooming Competition at Canadian Junior Angus Showdown

July 25, 2014: For Immediate Release

ROCKY VIEW COUNTY, AB —The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the 2014 Showdown Team Grooming Competition. Showdown was hosted in Virden, Manitoba this year. The awards for team grooming were awarded at the banquet on July 19th.

Team grooming participants are judged on their ability to prepare a calf for showing within 15 minutes. They are also judged on their teamwork and level of knowledge on the importance of preparing the animal for showing. The Juniors are responsible for finding their own partner and animal to groom.

The junior division (ages 9–12) champion team was comprised of Hillary Sauder and Coy Gibson. The reserve champion team was John Hogberg and Carson Leibreich.

The champion intermediate (ages 13–16) team was won by Cheyenne Catley and Brianna Kimmel and reserve champion went to Lauren and Maguire Blair.

In the senior division (ages 17–21) the champion team grooming was won by Raina Syrnyk and Nicholas Bray. The reserve team was Becky Domolewski and Chad Lorenz.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 92 participants that took part in Showdown in Virden, Manitoba.
