Angus Juniors Showcase Creativity in Art Competition at Showdown in Truro, NS

August 4, 2013: For Immediate Release

REGINA, SK—The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2016 Art Competition. Awards were presented at the banquet on July 30th.

The junior division (ages 9–12) champion was Abby Falconer from Pictou, Nova Scotia. Reserve champion was Nolan Chalmers of Shanty Bay, ON.

The intermediate division (ages 13–16) was won by Beverly Booth from Jolicure, NB and reserve was won by Kodie Doetzel from Lipton, SK.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Becky Domolewski of Taber, AB was selected champion and Nicole Booth from Jolicure, NB was reserve champion.

Juniors can compete in 14 different competitions at Showdown. Juniors that compete in the Art competition prepare a piece of art at home that is related to the Angus industry and bring it to Showdown for judging. The pieces of art vary from drawn pictures to welding projects and are judged based on creativity, originality and quality.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 72 participants that took part in Showdown in Truro, NS.
