Showdown Graphic Design Competition Showcases Youth Talent

August 4, 2016: For Immediate Release

REGINA, SK—The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2016 Graphic Design competition. The winners of this competition received their awards at the Showdown banquet on July 30th.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) the champion was Abby Falconer from Pictou, Nova Scotia and reserve was won by Nolan Chalmers of Shanty Bay, ON.

Albertans ruled in the intermediate division (ages 13–16) with champion awarded to Heidi Tymko from St. Paul and reserve champion awarded to Robert Geis from Barrhead.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Braeden Weppeler of Lucknow, ON was awarded champion and reserve champion went to Becky Domolewski of Taber, AB.

Juniors can participate in 14 different competitions at Showdown. Participants in the Graphic Design Competition create an ad using their computer at home and bring it to Showdown for judging. The ads are judged on their originality, eye appeal and information and must promote the Angus breed, the beef industry or an individual herd. This year's judge was CAA Director of Member Engagement Karla Ness.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 72 participants that took part in Showdown in Truro, NS.
