Canadian Junior Angus Announces Winners of Showdown 2017 Literature Competition

July 25, 2017: For Immediate Release

Rocky View County, AB— Canadian Junior Angus is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2017 Literature Competition. The awards were presented at the banquet on July 22nd.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) champion was Kasey Adams from Forestburg, AB and reserve champion was Wynton Brandl from Jarvie, AB.

Intermediate division (ages 13–16) champion is Riley Leeson from Vauxhall, AB and reserve champion is Keely Adams from Forestburg, AB.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Meghan McGillivray of Kamloops, BC was selected champion and Anna Miller of Linden, CA was reserve champion.

Youth participating in the Literature Competition compose a poem, essay, story or other type of literature with an agriculture theme and submit it for judging at Showdown. Entries are judged based on their use of proper grammar, creativity, and quality of writing. This year's competition was judged by former CJA directors Erin Toner and Katie Wright.

Canadian Junior Angus is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by Canadian Junior Angus. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year a record 158 participants and almost 200 head of cattle took part in Showdown in Lloydminster, SK.
