Canadian Junior Angus Association Showdown Team Judging Competition Winners

August 4, 2016: For Immediate Release

REGINA, SK—The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the Team Judging Competition for Showdown 2016. Awards were presented at the Showdown banquet on July 30th.

The champion team in the junior division (ages 9–12) was Maritimers Abby Falconer from Pictou, NS and Lacey Geddes from Scotch Settlement, NB. The reserve team was Nolan Chalmers from Shanty Bay, ON and John Ross MacQuarrie from Clyde River, PEI.

In the intermediate division (ages 13–16) the champion team was Jarrett Hargrave from Proton Station, ON and Hillary Sauder from Hodgeville, SK. Winning reserve champion in this competition were Albertans Heidi Tymko from St. Paul and Halley Adams from Forestburg.

Champions in the senior division (ages 17–21) were Michaela Chalmers from Shanty Bay, ON and Maguire Blair from Drake, SK. The reserve champion team was Henry Stewart from Invermay, SK and Becky Domolewski of Taber, AB.

To compete in this event participants had to place in the top six for their age division in the Judging Competition. The top six were randomly placed on teams to compete in team judging. Team judging competitors are evaluated on their ability to judge a class of heifers. During the competition, the acting judge is judged on their placing of the class as well as their ability to present reasons over the microphone. The ring person is judged on their ability to keep the cattle organized and in good order in the ring. The judges were Canadian Angus Association Director Trevor Welch and his son Taylor.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 72 participants that took part in Showdown in Truro, NS.
