Angus Juniors Excel in Judging at Showdown in Virden, Manitoba

July 25, 2014: For Immediate Release

ROCKY VIEW COUNTY, AB — The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the Judging Cards Competition for Showdown 2014. The awards were presented at the banquet on July 19th in Virden, Manitoba.

Participants in the Judging Cards competition are required to judge a class of four heifers on the traits you look for in a quality female. They are marked on their placing as well as their reasons for placing the class the way that they did.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) Baxter Blair was the champion and reserve went to Hillary Sauder.

The intermediate division (ages 13–16) grand champion went to Laurie Morasch and reserve was won by Cheyenne Catley.

In the senior division (ages 17–21) Michaela Chalmers won grand champion and Nicholas Bray was the reserve champion.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 92 participants that took part in Showdown in Virden, Manitoba.
