Angus Youth Bring Their Creativity for Marketing Competition at Showdown

July 25, 2014: For Immediate Release

ROCKY VIEW COUNTY, AB — The Canadian Junior Angus Association is pleased to announce the winners of the 2014 Print Marketing Competition. Awards were presented on July 19th at the banquet at Showdown in Virden, Manitoba.

Print Marketing participants are required to make a print ad at Showdown with materials supplied by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. Participants in the junior division can promote anything that they like with their ad and participants in the intermediate and senior divisions had to design a new logo for the Canadian Junior Angus Association.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) the winner was Hillary Sauder and Baxter Blair was the reserve champion.

In the intermediate division (ages 13–16) the champion was Meghan MvGillivray and the reserve champion was Kendra Topham.

The senior division (ages 17–21) champion was Raina Syruyk and Keltey Whelen took home the reserve champion award.

The Canadian Junior Angus Association is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by the Canadian Junior Angus Association. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year there were 92 participants that took part in Showdown in Virden, Manitoba.
