Showdown Graphic Design Competition Showcases Youth Talent

July 26, 2018: For Immediate Release

Rocky View County, AB—Canadian Junior Angus is pleased to announce the winners of the Showdown 2018 Graphic Design competition. The winners of this competition received their awards at the Showdown banquet on Saturday, July 21st.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) the champion was Lauren Irvine of Guelph, ON and reserve was won by Luke Kemp of Blackstock, ON.

In the intermediate division (ages 13–16) the champion was Justin Walker of Geulph, ON and reserve champion was awarded to Nolan Chalmers of Oro-Medonte, ON.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Jarrett Hargrave of Proton Station, ON was awarded champion and reserve champion went to Rebecca Redner of Warkworth, ON.

Juniors can participate in 16 different competitions at Showdown. Participants in the Graphic Design Competition create an ad using their computer at home and bring it to Showdown for judging. The ads are judged on their originality, eye appeal and information and must promote the Angus breed, the beef industry or an individual herd. This year's judge was Ben Wright.

Canadian Junior Angus is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by Canadian Junior Angus. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year 98 participants and almost 150 head of cattle took part in Showdown in Barrie, ON.
