Angus Youth Showcase Print Marketing Skills at Canadian Junior Angus Showdown in Barrie, ON

July 26, 2018: For Immediate Release

Rocky View County, AB—Canadian Junior Angus is pleased to announce the winners of the 2018 Print Marketing Competition. The awards were presented at the banquet on Saturday, July 21st.

In the junior division (ages 9–12) champion was Riley Chowen, of Thorndale, ON.

Intermediate division (ages 13–16) champion is Jessica Davey, of Saskatoon, SK and reserve champion is Kathryn Ashworth of Hampton, NB.

In the senior division (ages 17–21), Meghan McGillivray from Kamloops, BC was selected champion and Michaela Chalmers of Oro-Medonte, ON was reserve champion.

Print Marketing competitors are required to make a print ad at Showdown with materials supplied by Canadian Junior Angus. Participants in the peewee division can promote anything that they like with their ad while participants in the junior, intermediate and senior divisions were asked to prepare an ad marketing their operation and/or items from their operation such as animals, embryos, etc. The competition was judged by Tom MacDonald, Bill Jackson and Don Currie.

Canadian Junior Angus is a group of Angus enthusiasts under the age of 21. Showdown is an annual summer cattle show organized by Canadian Junior Angus. It rotates to provinces throughout the country every July. This year 98 participants and almost 150 head of cattle took part in Showdown in Barrie, ON.
